

Organic Gem of the West® Wheat Gluten

Product Description

Organic Gem of the West® Wheat Gluten is isolated from certified organic, high quality wheat flour by natural wet-processing techniques and followed by a delicate flash-drying process. This product retains the vitality or viscoelasticity of wet gluten before the drying step. Organic Gem of the West® Wheat Gluten provides strength and elasticity, increases volume, and improves the texture of organic breads, buns, dinner rolls and other yeast-leavened products. It also imparts firmness to organic pasta and noodles and is used to enhance the protein content of breakfast cereals and snacks.
